More than just beautiful (Wolf)

They say that love is blind I wonder what that means the good ones are hard to find such phrases don't sound real to me from the first moment we met I knew what's missing in my life was you all that I can think of all I ever dream of is to make you love me too you're more than just beautiful you're smart and you're kind it's how you are, it's what you do you're unbelievable

there's no one else like you your love is changing me that's no coincidence, but fate I fantasize I'm holding you I want you now but know I have to wait I see you walk by and seal my lips I stop myself from shouting out loud I think I'm going crazy time is all against me that's what love is all about

you're unbelievable

a feeling as if lightning strikes I hold my breath, I pray it's real, and hope you share the way I feel

you're more than just beautiful
you're unbelievable
it's how you are, and everything you do
