No way out (Wolf/Wolf)

No intentions, whatsoever
I was gone for a night, nothing's forever
The cruel daylight brought me back to my senses
(back to my senses)
Got caught in here under false pretenses

No way out , none whatever
I made up the story, thought it was clever
She didn't ask and I got no reply
(got no reply)
But later that night I heard her cry

No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my story

No accusations, none, whatever
But can she forget, nothing's forever
Since yesterday she's a little bit colder
(little bit colder)
Won't happen again what could I've told her

No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my story
Doesn't buy my story

How can she tell the truth from the lies
How does she know when to close her eyes
She doesn't want to lose me
So she only sees what she wants to see

No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out, she doesn't buy my story
No way out she doesn't buy my story
No way out, no way out, no way out
