Talking with the Heart (Peter Wolf/Ina Wolf)

miles away from talking with the heart he puts the match in your hand he makes you watch it, watch it burn till the end modern lies hide behind suits and ties modern lies are deadly heroes in disguise

miles away from talking with the heart

wait till he knocks on your door tell him his smile doesn't work anymore

I have to talk to you
I have to talk to you
it's getting dangerous for the both of us what's come over you?

miles away from talking with the heart
I have to talk to you
I have to talk to you
what's come over you?
